It is my pleasure to write a letter of recommendation for David Romero. Although I briefly worked with David, he was an exceptional individual to get to know. He was prompt, professional, and charismatic. He worked for me from November 2019 through October 2020. David worked hard to adapt to the diverse work environment he was placed in.

In the time I supervised David, he had a diverse set of responsibilities ranging from SEO and marketing to IT and networking for the Company. I have managed countless individuals throughout my career in the Army and all over the world and David is an individual that can be counted on for his professionalism. He will be a great contributor to any team he is on. I recommend David for any job he is considering as he is a very adaptable and reliable employee. He will be an asset to any employer. If you have any further questions about David, please do not hesitate to contact me.
